

Letter of motivation

Master programme in Philosophy and Economics

Read the information available in the study profile of the degree programme, before submitting your application for admission.

Answer the following questions in your own words. Do not use Artificial Intelligence.

Enter your answers in the space provided on page two of this document.

You must not use more than one A4 page.

1. What do you expect to learn from the master programme in Philosophy and Economics, and what role does the programme play in your further academic, personal, and professional development? Please address the philosophy, economics, and interdisciplinary aspects of the curriculum.
2. Which of the three subject areas of the curriculum - “Philosophy, History, and Methodology of Economics”, “Rationality and Decision Making”, and “Ethics, Welfare, and Justice” - interests you most? What, in particular, interests you about it?
3. In which ways will your prior experiences, qualifications, and skills support your studies in this programme?
4. Optional: Is there any further information that we should be aware of, such as personal circumstances that may have negatively affected some of your academic performance to date?

My motivation for studying Philosophy and Economics